2024

INTRODUCTION

Dear all,

I am thrilled to welcome you to this year's edition of the Havas Café at the Cannes Lions International Festival of Creativity for what I'm certain will be an inspiring and productive week!

This year, our focus at the Havas Café will be how creativity is being super-charged by innovation and technology to make the strongest, most meaningful difference for our clients.

As we gather once again, we celebrate not only our clients but also the dedicated teams behind the groundbreaking campaigns that set new standards for creativity in the coming year.

The Café is our home for the week and an ideal spot to exchange ideas, make meaningful connections and catch-up with clients, colleagues, and peers.

I invite you to consult this document for information on the exciting activations and content both inside and outside the Café.

I look forward to seeing you in Cannes!

Yannick Boffré

Chairman and CEO, Havas

The Havas Café has been a fixture on the Croisette during the Cannes Lions International Festival of Creativity since 2006. Each year, the Café hosts over 2,500 talents, clients, marketers, partners, press, and celebrities, offering them a place to meet and take in thought-provoking discussions during the day and enjoy music and socializing in the evenings.

It was created as a “home” for all the people from Havas who travel to Cannes from all over the world to attend the festival; a place for everyone to come together, network, organize meetings, welcome clients and partners, meet the press, and have fun. It also provides a comfortable space with free Wi-Fi to work from during Cannes Lions week.

The Café was originally located on a small terrace of a nightclub on the Croisette, before relocating to a bigger terrace at the InterContinental Carlton Cannes Hotel a few years later. In 2012, the Café moved to the beautiful gardens in front of Le Grand Hôtel, now called the Mondrian Cannes.

Over the years, many events and activations illustrating our creativity and showcasing the power of our group have taken place. The Havas Café has also hosted international celebrities such as American Oscar-winning actress Halle Berry, British popstar Ellie Goulding, as well as international jazz musician and DJ Jamie Cullum, actor and musician Jeff Goldblum, Nigerian singer and activist Yemi Alade, and two-time Emmy award-winning violinist Damien Escobar.
