PERSONAL DATA PAGE:

Personal Data:

Orange is committed to ensuring the protection, confidentiality and security of its customers' personal data. The present Personal Data Notice informs you about the way in which Orange, its possible subcontractors or partners, process your personal data in the context of the ORANGE OPEN TECH DAYS website.

Why does Orange process your personal data and on what basis?

The purpose of the processing carried out by Orange is to manage the sending of the invitation and registration for the ORANGE OPEN TECH DAYS event and, in particular, the provision of the personal access link enabling you to take part.

You may ask us at any time not to send you any further communications by sending a request to the following address: orange.opentechdays@orange.com

What personal data is processed?

Orange collects your personal data via the registration form on the OPEN TECH DAYS website organized by Orange.

The categories of personal data that we process in the context of this service are:

- Contact data (first name, surname, e-mail address, phone number)
- Statistical data related to the service.

The collection of the e-mail address is compulsory in order to send communications relating to this event. This data is not used for commercial prospecting purposes.

To whom is your personal data transmitted?

The data collected is intended for the authorized internal departments of the Orange Group and its service providers who process the data on behalf of Orange for the purposes of event registration.

How long is personal data kept?

Orange undertakes to destroy the data collected within two months of the end of the OPEN TECH DAYS event organized by Orange.

What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have the right to access and rectify your personal data, as well as the right to limit and object to the processing of your data.

If you no longer wish to receive communications from the OPEN TECH DAYS organizing team, you can exercise your rights at any time by writing to us at orange.opentechdays@orange.com.

You are informed that you have the right to lodge a request with the Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés (CNIL), the supervisory authority responsible for compliance with personal data protection obligations in France. We encourage you to contact us before making any request, so that we can try to resolve it together.

Is personal data transferred outside the EU?

The personal data collected and processed by Orange is not transferred outside the European Union.

How can I contact the Data Protection Officer?

You may contact the Orange Data Protection Officer for questions relating to the protection of personal data:

- by e-mail at the following address: group-dpo.donnees-personnelles@orange.com

- by post at the following address
